About Us

Welcome to Dholavira Desert Homestay — where heritage meets comfort in the heart of the Rann of Kutch.

We are more than just a place to stay; we are a window into the vivid culture, history, and natural beauty of Gujarat, with the peaceful desert skies as your ceiling.

Nestled amid the tranquil arid landscapes near Dholavira, our homestay was born from a dream: to offer travellers an authentic taste of Kutchi life without giving up on comfort.

Inspired by the “Traditional Rajwadi Bunga”, the rustic beauty of “Kutchi Bhunga”, and the elegance of “Deluxe Rooms”, we have created a space that bridges the old-world charm and contemporary amenities.
